

On November 17 & 18, Mosaic will travel to Shipshewana, IN to participate in a fun overnight trip. We saw a delightful play in Shipshewana in 2022 (Dear Soldier Boy); some of the same writers have produced another play – A Christmas Candy Caper. Some of the same cast are in it, including the funny candy shop owner from Dear Soldier Boy. It, too, looks to be very delightful.

Some other activities will include:

- Delicious meals including full Amish fare and a meal in an Amish home.
- The play A Christmas Candy Caper at the Blue Gate Theater.
- Visit to a creamery and cheese shop.
- Opportunity to shop

PLOT SYNOPSIS

After years of playing pranks on her family and friends, Candy Shop owner Lydia Miller experiences real-life holiday danger when two men break into her shop to steal her coveted candy recipe. But what began as a burglary, quickly escalates into a kidnapping when the burglars, rebuffed by Lydia and told much the town loves her and will come after them if they harm her in any way, figure they can make far more money in ransom pay.

Unfortunately, being the Amish girl who cried wolf once too often, the town believes the note is just another one of Lydia's pranks and they pay it no mind. This leads to a hilarious back and forth between the kidnappers, the police chief, the bishop, the mayor, and various family members and friends, all trying to get a better bargain for Lydia. Or, instead of cash, would the kidnappers take livestock? Bales of hay? Pie? Now the kidnappers are stuck with a victim that no one seems to want back.

Lydia can't believe that no one is willing to pay the ransom, or even come see about her. Hilarity ensues. The plot thickens. What will happen to Lydia? Come and see.
