

Schedule of Activities - 2025 - The Lord Willing

Wednesday, March 26

Michigan Central Station has been wonderfully restored and refurbished and has become a destination spot for Detroiters and visitors alike. We will have a guided tour of this beautiful facility with lunch first at Nemo's Restaurant. Limit 50 people. $70.00

Thursday, May 1

We'll enjoy a trip to Grand Rapids for a tour of the "Our Daily Bread" headquarters, seeing the production and publishing of the little devotional booklet that means so much to many of us. We will enjoy lunch at a local restaurant. $90.00

Wednesday, June 4

We'll first enjoy lunch at a unique restaurant in a downtown restaurant called Too-Roo-Loo and then take in a funny play at Meadowbrook Theater called "Sheer Madness" which takes place in a beauty shop and involves the audience. Limit 50 people. $88.00

Thursday, August 14

Something definitely unique is in store for you as we visit Farrand Hall in Colon, MI. First, we will have a tour of their gardens which should be beautiful at this time of year. Then, we'll enjoy a meal in an outdoor setting (weather permitting). Special treat on the way home. $95.00

Thursday, September 25

You may have wondered about that gold-domed church sitting along the Lodge - US-10 as you head south toward Detroit. It is St. John's Armenian Church, and we'll participate in a tour of both the church and their museum (dedicated to Armenian heritage). Then we'll savor a home-cooked Armenian meal at the facility. $50.00

Friday, October 10

We have visited Turkeyville before, enjoying both their store, their turkey meal, and their plays. We will visit again taking in that delicious turkey dinner and then enjoy the show – "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat." $105.00

Friday, December 12

We will return to Orchestra Hall and enjoy another delightful "Home for the Holidays" concert by our wonderful Detroit Symphony Orchestra. More details later.

All prices reflect rising transportation costs and include driver gratuity. Due to fluctuating prices, some adjustments may need to be made.
